All the world's a stage
And we are merely players
Performers and portrayers
Each other's audience
Outside the golden cage.

Whatever you heard about me is true
I change the rules and do what I want to do

Because you and I know we've got to die someday
You think I'm crazy you're probably right
But I'm gonna have fun every XXX night.

Waiting for someone or something to show you the way.

-Oscar Wilde

I enjoy certain things, no one else has to enjoy them, and I see certain things in a certain way, but no one else has to see those things in the same way. And then again, no one has the right to tell me it's immoral or selfish or wrong to do what I do.

If you want it too.

Nature's first green is gold,

Congratulates the Class of '85

THANKS...

Nancy - for someone to talk to on all those L-O-N-G bus rides & for being a locker neighbor in Lower Russell.

Ellie - for someone to remind me to not take life too seriously & for showing me the funky-chicken.

Robin - for someone who understands what it's like taking Bio and Chem simultaneously & for showing me how much fun coloring-in orbitals can really be.

Cathy - for someone who is always ready, ready, ready ready to play tennis & for introducing me to carob and Weggies health food section.

Sue E - for someone to help me get through all those Friday nights at yearbook & for gladly writing that last-minute peer reference for Williams.

Amy - for someone to complain with about having AP Bio exams on deadline nights -- or any other reason for that matter.

Eric B. - for someone to continuously challenge and later pick-on for getting better grades & for taking all my pencils.

Matt - for someone else who still loved chemistry over any other science & for defending it against Eric and Pete who we have decided are irreversibly brainwashed.

Keep in touch -- MLC. (No, it isn't Meg).

When you're down and troubled
And you need some loving care
And nothing, nothing is going right
Close you're eyes and think of me
And soon I'll be there
To brighten even you're darkest night
You just call out my name
And you know wherever I am
I'll come running, just to see you again
Winter spring summer or fall
All you've got do is call, And I'll be there yes I will, You've got a friend

One of the hardest things to realize is your own potential.
Credit it to a less-than-perfect blend of brainpower, self-confidence, hard work and just plain luck: you just made it over one of the biggest hurdles of your life.
It took the behind-the-scene backing of family and friends to get you through the last dozen years, you can be sure. They pushed as you pulled and, together, you did it.
But there's so much more left to do. We at Carter Tool know, with the right attitude, there's no telling how far you can go.
